PETITIONING THE COURT

- [] To issue a warrant
[X] To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-----------------------------	--------------------------------

- | | |
| 1 | Violation of Special Conditions of Supervision: The defendant shall submit to a sex offender mental health assessment and program of sex offender mental health, as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer, until such time as the defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. This assessment and treatment may include a polygraph to assist in planning and case monitoring. The defendant may be required to contribute to the cost of services rendered (copayment) in an amount to be determined by the probation officer, based on the defendant's ability to pay. Any refusal to submit to such assessment or tests as scheduled is a violation of the conditions of supervision. |

On September 29, 2017, Steven Eslick violated this condition of supervised release when he used countermeasures to intentionally manipulate the polygraph examination. Furthermore, on October 4, 2017, he admitted to U.S. Probation Officer Brien Detamore, Senior U.S. Probation Officer Aric Holloway, and Supervisory U.S. Probation Officer Loraine Liggins that he used countermeasures that he learned in prison in an effort to beat the polygraph examination because he had viewed naked images of a 17 year old male on his friend's cellular phone.

- 2 Violation of Special Conditions of Supervision: The defendant shall not view, purchase, possess, or distribute any form of pornography depicting sexually explicit conduct, as defined in 18 U.S.C. 2256(2), unless approved for treatment purposes, or frequent any place where such material is the primary product for sale or entertainment is available.

Violation of Special Conditions of Supervision: The defendant all not use a computer to access any on-line computer service at any location (including employment) for the purpose of viewing, obtaining, or transmitting child pornography or other sexually explicit material. The defendant shall not access internet chat rooms for the purpose of obtaining child pornography or enticing children under the age of 18 to engage in sexually explicit activity.

Violation of Special Conditions of Supervision: The defendant shall not possess or use a computer with access to any on-line computer service at any location (including place of employment) without the prior written approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet Service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private network or e-mail system.

On a date or dates between March 24, 2017 and October 16, 2017, Steven Eslick violated these conditions of supervised release, as evidenced by his admission to U.S. Probation Officer Brien Detamore and Senior U.S. Probation Officer Brock Johns on October 16, 2017. Furthermore, Steven Eslick admitted that since his release, he has viewed up to two dozen pictures of naked men, some who could have been under the age of 18, on his friend's cellular phone; that he has viewed adult pornography via the internet with a friend; and that he's utilized his friend's cellular phone to access sites on the internet such as Tender and Grinder, and chatted with people on these sites. Additionally, Mr. Eslick admitted to sending pictures of his penis to a friend from college.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

- ☒ [X] The term of supervision should be revoked.
- ☐ [] Extended for years, for a total term of years.
- ☐ [] The conditions of supervision should be modified as follows:
